

PTA

The Torrance Council Way
By Mrs. Eugene Laxton

HICKORY
Hickory PTA recently presented Charles Mahan, school district psychologist, who spoke on "Father's Role in Education."

Dr. J. R. Bloomfield extends grateful thanks to all who participated in organizing the March of Dimes at Hickory.

"For Every Child - An Informed Community" will be the theme of the Feb. 21 meeting. Battalion Chief Gordon Northington, Torrance Fire Dept., will present a film and demonstration on mouth to mouth resuscitation.

Founder's Day was commemorated with a silver tea from 2 to 3 p.m., February 15, at Hickory cafeteria.

Mrs. Kenneth McVey, Council Founder's Day chairman, was guest speaker.

A paper drive will be held Feb. 28.

CASIMIR
In keeping with the television theme "Life with Father," Joe Wilcox, executive secretary of the YMCA, will present a film lecture, "Pack Trip on the John Muir Trail," at the Casimir PTA association meeting at 7:30 p.m., February 21.

Richard Fyhrle, a tenor soloist featured at the Wilshire Christ Church, and a member of the Roger Wagner Chorale will perform, accompanied by his wife. Sharing the musical spotlight will be the brass choir from the Casimir Orchestra, directed by Milton Marcus.

Chairman, Mrs. William Hunter, will make the Honorary Life presentations and Mrs. Walter Keberlein will read the report of the nominating committee.

CRENSHAW
Crenshaw PTA will present the theme, "Pioneers for Youth" at the Feb. 21 association meeting. The inspiration will be sung by the school glee club directed by Ronald Blank.

Mrs. Lonnie Mansker, Founder's Day and Honorary Life chairman, will present a skit "Order in the Court." The nominating committee will read their report. Elections will be conducted at the next unit meeting at which time nominations will also be made from the floor.

PARKWAY

Parkway PTA held a Founder's Day program with Mrs. Bob Lindley featured chairman. Parkway mothers presented an original skit with words to the music of "My Fair Lady" written by Mrs. Robert Stapleton. A nominating committee was elected.

RIVIERA

Mrs. Leo Bereda, president and Mrs. Allan Crosby, featured chairman for Founder's Day, will present Dr. Myron Olson, professor of education at USC, 8 p.m., Feb. 21, in Riviera cafeteria. Past recipient of the Lions International "Community Wide Award," Dr. Olson has an outstanding background as an educator, curriculum consultant, and youth advisor spanning 26 years. He was formerly principal of the University of Iowa Experimental Secondary school. Mrs. Crosby will also announce the Honorary Life Award. Fourth, fifth, and fifth-sixth combination grades will be hostesses.

Sale Slated On Weekend

Temple Manora Sisterhood will hold a rummage sale on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Feb. 22-24, from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. at 1276 Sartori Ave., Torrance.

Usable clothing, shoes and jewelry, as well as many items of furniture, housewares and toys will be on sale.

Mrs. Nan Sutton, chairman of the sale committee and Mrs. Albera Carmona, third vice president, also of Torrance, will be assisted by Sisterhood members.

Leaves for Australia

Mrs. H. C. Rush, who has spent the past three months here with her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Masters, 3430 Artesia Blvd., leaves this weekend for her home in Australia. This was the first time Mrs. Rush had seen her brother in 30 years and it was her first visit to Southern California which she described as a "bit of Heaven on earth."

At Guest Ranch

Mr. and Mrs. Paul L. Warren, 24204 Ocean Ave., Waverly, were recent guests at the Warner Springs Guest Ranch in San Diego County.

Dianas Enjoy Program; Schedule Future Events

Mrs. Robert McKinney of the "Guilded Cage Shop" in Waverly displayed a large variety of do-it-yourself jewelry, hats, bags, jeweled shoes and decorated sweaters as the program at the business meeting of the Diana club. The guest artist was presented by Mrs. Barre Bodenlos, crafts chairman.

Mrs. Paul Taylor, president, conducted the business meeting during which Mrs. John Hansford announced that the Dianas' senior mother's luncheon will be held Feb. 17 at noon at the clubhouse. Mrs. Sunye Richards and her paintings, "Women of the Bible" will head the program for the afternoon.

Contestants for the Vogue sewing contest will model their own creations.

On Feb. 19, the Dianas will enjoy a lesson "How to Decorate a Cake." Each member will bring her own cake and Mrs. Paul Mitchell will teach decorating.

Children of the Garden Valley Assn. will be entertained at a Valentine party by the Dianas, announced Mrs. Ted Kerwin, philanthropy chairman. A bowling party for the children has been slated for the second week in March.

Club members plan to attend the District meeting in Hawthorne this month when winners in the Diana Teenage Miss, Americanism and Vogue sewing contest will compete with other club winners.

It was also announced that Dianas will serve as guides at the Redondo Beach City Hall open house on Feb. 24. They have also donated $35 on the refreshments. Jeannie Moody, art chairman, displayed the Diana art work which won second place in the district. A Valentine dessert was served by Mrs. Robert Evans and her committee, Mmes. Forest Johnson, Floyd Fleener and Vincent Rothemich.

PTA ACTIVITIES

S. M. White
Stephen M. White Junior High PTA's Founder's Day program will be presented on Tuesday, Feb. 20, at 2 p.m. in White Hall. At this time Mrs. Francis Anania, PTA president, will welcome past presidents and presidents of the local PTA units.

Two Honorary Life Memberships will be awarded at this time. Honorary Life Membership money goes toward scholarship funds to help worthy students to continue with their studies. The award is made to some person in the community for exceptional effort toward the welfare of youth and community over and above their regular activities.

Miss Hickman's drama class will present a skit honoring Founder's Day.

The PTA board will be hostess for the afternoon occasion.

Narbonne

A fashion show will be the highlight of the Narbonne PTA association meeting to be held in the multipurpose room Tuesday, Feb. 20, at 1:30 p.m. Students will model their own creations and will be assisted by members of the faculty.

Past presidents of the association since its founding will be the guests of honor and many will travel great distances to renew old friendships.

The nominating committee for officers for the 1962-63 year will be elected and delegates to represent the association at the council and district elections will be chosen.

Mrs. Joseph Butler, president, urges the new B10 parents to attend this meeting to acquaint themselves with the school and the PTA. Mrs. Butler will present to the association an award recently given by tenth district in recognition of achievement in parent education. The class held was entitled "Discipline in Schools."

Lomita - San Pedro Council recently had a luncheon at the Fish Shanty in Lomita to honor the start of PTA.

Mrs. Fred Doolin, president of this PTA Council of the Los Angeles Tenth District, presided during the business portion of the program. During the program, the present presidents of the 17 schools represented wore costumes depicting the year their PTA was started. Highlight of this portion was when the president of the 223rd St. School, Mrs. Ralph Robertson, wore an exact outfit the president of 223rd St. School Mrs. David Goolsby, wore at the first PTA meeting in Sept. 1956.

Mr. T. O. Hammitt, past director of Normandale Playground in the Shoestring Strip area, was presented the Honorary Life Membership and pin from the Lomita-San Pedro Council. He was honored for his many hours of work dedicated to the well-being of children and his faithful service to the community. Mrs. Judson Bowers, Council Founder's Day chairman, presented the award in front of over 200 members and friends of the Parent Teachers organizations in the Lomita, San Pedro, Harbor City and Torrance areas.

Walteria

Honorary life memberships in the Walteria School PTA were presented to Mrs. Ethel Hiller and Mrs. Michael Malia during the group's recent Founders' Day meeting.

Both were cited for their work in behalf of the children of the area. Mrs. Hiller for many years has been secretary of the school. Mrs. Malia has been active in many PTA activities and last autumn headed the group's highly successful Halloween carnival.

Past presidents honored at the gathering included Mmes. Bruce Howey, Carl Cramer, Charles Jackson, Henry Fink, J. J. Lawlor, C. S. Russak and James Birmingham. A seventh, Mrs. B. J. Michels, was unable to be present because of illness.

Mrs. Robert Schrauben, current president, recalled PTA accomplishments since the organization was founded 65 years ago as the honorary memberships were presented and her predecessors were introduced by Mrs. Claude Creasey, vice president.

Mothersingers from the Towers and Flavian Schools entertained the gathering. Mrs. Hector Herrera was in charge of the program.
